Dear Parent/Carer,

Tracking reports are being issued today with your young person's current working provisional bandings.

Those of you who have registered for the Parents Portal should receive an alert and be able to access the report through it. For other young people, they will receive a printed copy of their report to take home this afternoon.

Young people are working to complete further assessments as required and the final list of provisional grades will be issued in due course, later in June.
